

Fife Events Quick Reference Guide

Introduction

This Quick Reference Guide has been designed to support event organisers who are planning or organising an event within Fife. This document identifies key areas of action and consideration and provides basic guidance on delivering a smooth event or festival, whatever the scale.

This document should be viewed on a computer, laptop or mobile device. Please click the arrow or mail icons in order to access information, documents and e-mail links. If you do not have a personal computer, please note that public use computers are available at your local library.

This Guide will direct you to useful resources, covering areas such as Health and Safety, Licensing, Logistics and Event Promotion. We hope you find this guide helpful, however, please remember that event organisers have a legal responsibility to ensure event attendees are kept safe at all times: we recommend that you use this document as a guide only and refer to The Purple Guide or HSE when considering aspects of operational planning and event health and safety.

Fife boasts an exciting and diverse programme of events, from smaller-scale community fairs and galas, to high profile, international sporting events. Fife Council recognise the vital impact that events have on local communities: successful events create a strong sense of place, valuable economic impact and build essential opportunities to have rich experiences in areas such as the arts, culture, food and drink, heritage and sport.
